

Arcadia Public Library History Collection

Schools

<https://arcadiahistory.andornot.com/en/permalink/paintings6>

Artist: Edna Lenz

Description:

Arcadia's First School -- This converted packing shed donated by Lucky Baldwin, was located on the northeast corner of Santa Anita Avenue and Huntington Drive, and opened as a school in 1903 with 58 students. Arcadia students had been attending schools in Monrovia, Sierra Madre and Chapman.

Item ID: 89L

Collection: Paintings

Images

